The Mission

St. Peter Parish Community

To celebrate that we are a diverse people who grow in faith, work together in hope, worship together in love, bear one another’s sorrows, forgive one another’s faults, share one another’s joys. We will see with the eye of the heart, look for God in one another, and see God in everyone.
The Lectionary for Mass—Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Prophets are more often running for their lives than receiving a warm welcome, but this reading from 2 Kings gives us an example of the latter situation. A widow in Shunem welcomes Elisha warmly, and even provides him with his own room so that he can feel at home whenever he wishes to visit. Her hospitality is rewarded: the prophet tells her that she will soon have the son she has long wished for. Responsorial Psalm 89 is the song of people who know and rejoice in the faithfulness of God. The psalm, which speaks of God’s praise echoing through the generations, is a joyful response to the good news at the end of the First Reading—the birth of a child. Second Reading: We continue our reading of St. Paul’s letter to the Romans with a key passage about Baptism which is also read at the great Easter Vigil. Baptism is nothing less than death and life. Through Baptism, we die with Christ, and share in the power of his Resurrection from the dead. We are not the same anymore: and we need to live like the new, redeemed people that we are. Gospel: Jesus warns his Apostles what to expect before he sends them out to proclaim the Gospel. This will be no easy task and it requires a commitment beyond anything else in their lives, a bond even stronger than that between parent and child. And yet, the rewards are beyond measure, too, not only for the Apostles, but for all who help them: “whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward,” Jesus says, alluding to today’s First Reading. The woman who welcomed Elisha out of love of God was rewarded beyond her imagining. When we welcome others in the name of Christ, we welcome Christ himself.

Job opening for Pastoral Assistant for Youth Ministry, Full Time

South Seattle’s 4 Parish Cluster of St. Edward, St. George, St. Paul, and St. Peter is looking to hire an enthusiastic, passionate, and experienced person to provide the vision and coordination to help the youth of our parishes come to realize that they are an integral and important part of our Catholic family. The main role of our Youth Minister will be to provide spiritual guidance, encouragement, support, and education for all our young. The successful candidate is an active member of a Catholic faith community, with at least a B.A. (M.A. preferred) in a related field, and experience dealing with a richly diverse multicultural community. Must be able to work some evenings and weekends. Bilingual in English/Spanish is a plus. We offer a competitive salary and benefits. Please submit letters of interest and resume to the Regional Administrator, Kevin Murphy at kmurphy@stedwardparish.net. Please no phone calls.

"The Secret of the Rosary is not that the rosary is kept a secret but that its dynamic power is generally unknown. The secret of the rosary is its power against sin and evil and its power to generate goodness. Sin and the rosary cannot coexist in the same person. Either the person will give up sinning or they will give up saying the rosary." Come help distribute the riches that last, the riches of the Faith. Join the Legion of Mary. Contact the parish office for more information.

Many thanks to the 113 parishioners who have turned in their pledge envelopes and donation to the Annual Catholic Appeal. They have carried us to reach our goal of $27,397.00. Any amount contributed from this point on will be returned to our parish to fund the renovation of parish facilities and church restrooms.

If you have not sent in your ACA pledge envelope, please prayerfully consider doing so. Any amount contributed is vital to our mission. Most of all we need the support of all parishioners.

Thank you for your generous support in last week’s Peter’s Pence Collection! As a parish, we collected $1,030.75. Our contributions will be combined with those from our brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis provide essential relief to people in need. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give, visit www.usccb.org/national collections, and click on the “How to Give” link on the left.
